Introduction

The legislative session in 2003 was like no other, dogged by a budget shortfall projected by the Davis administration at $38 billion in May and capped by the voter recall of Governor Gray Davis in October, five days before his deadline for acting on legislation sent to him in the waning days of the session. He remained in office until the election was certified weeks later.

This document highlights measures sent to Governor Davis in 2003 in more than 30 policy areas and reports his actions on them, including their chapter numbers if signed. Unless otherwise noted, most signed measures take effect January 1, 2004.

The governor signed bills to provide driver's licenses to undocumented immigrants, limit the ability of financial institutions to share information about their customers, crack down further on e-mail "spam," provide domestic partners the legal rights and responsibilities of married couples, and require large and medium-sized employers to offer their workers health insurance or pay the state to provide coverage.

Vetoed measures would have posted citizens' initiatives on the Internet for 30 days of public comment and prohibited merchants from collecting unnecessary information from customers.

After adjourning for the year on September 12, the Assembly returned to Sacramento for a brief special session to vote on renewing "Megan's law," which otherwise would have expired next January. As a result, information about registered sex offenders will continue to be accessible to the public.

In crafting a budget compromise, legislators agreed to significant reductions in education, paving the way for sharp fee increases at community colleges and public universities to offset cuts. By the spring of 2004, university campuses may be turning away otherwise eligible freshmen and juniors who seek to transfer from community colleges. Other spending cuts came in criminal justice, Medi-Cal provider rates, and suspension of cost-of-living increases in public assistance.

The Legislative Analyst's Office has prepared an overview of the 2003-04 state budget, passed on July 29, 2003, and its trailer bills. Titled Major Features of the 2003 California Budget, it is available on the LAO's Web site at www.lao.ca.gov or by calling 916-445-4656.

When lawmakers return in January for the second year of their two-year session, a new chief executive -- Arnold Schwarzenegger -- will be awaiting them in the governor's office to offer his own budget proposals, and perhaps other initiatives, and determine the fate of their bills.

Aging and Long-Term Care

The primary focus of legislation in the area of long-term care and aging this session has been consumer protection, including enhancement of financial and physical security and more consumer information regarding long-term care contracts. Several bills require that persons be provided with accurate information before they enter into a contract with a residential care home for the elderly and also expand the definition of crimes committed by a caretaker against an elderly person. Other bills enhance the information to be provided to elderly persons attempting to choose between health plans, and provide additional information on prescription labels to prevent medical errors. In addition, legislation enacted in 2003 addresses the problem of geriatric, disabled inmates in need of skilled nursing care while incarcerated.

SB 200 (Murray) – Prohibits long-term care insurance carriers from requiring genetic testing as a condition of providing long-term care insurance. This prohibition will apply to testing for the presence of a genetic characteristic for insurability or underwriting purposes. Signed – Chapter 408/Statutes of 2003.

SB 211 (Dunn) – Specifies that the requirements of any contracts, a list of the patient's rights, and billing and payment information be provided to elderly persons, or their representatives, when the elderly person is being admitted to a licensed "residential care home for the elderly." The purpose of the bill is to require that costs and payment policies, as well as the patient's rights, be provided to the patient in writing before the patient moves into the care home. SB 211 also requires that the patient sign and date the initial admission agreement documents and any subsequent modifications to the documents. A violation of this law by a care home operator would be a misdemeanor. Signed – Chapter 409/Statutes of 2003.

SB 292 (Speier) – Requires labels on pharmacy prescription containers to include a physical description of the drug, including its color, shape, etc. The purpose of this bill is to reduce the incidence of medication errors, which can cause injury or death. As elderly persons typically take a number of prescription medications, this bill should reduce medication errors among this age group. SB 292 will go into effect on January 1, 2006; however, if the California Board of Pharmacy adopts regulations containing this requirement prior to that time, this bill will not go into effect. Signed – Chapter 544/Statutes of 2003.

SB 413 (Speier) – Permits the Department of Aging to charge HMOs an increased fee to cover the cost of counseling seniors on the provisions of HMO health plans. The fee increase will permit the Department of Aging to expand its counseling and provision of information to seniors regarding the complicated provisions of health plans. This bill also requires the department to assess an annual fee, for the same purpose, on HMOs for each enrollee under a Medicare supplemental contract. Signed – Chapter 545/Statutes of 2003.

SB 540 (Soto) – Requires licensed residential care facilities for the elderly that advertise special programs, such as for dementia or other conditions, to disclose to prospective residents accurate information on the specific services that will be provided. The licensee of the facility will be required to provide, in writing and prior to the admission of the elderly person, specific information on the programs and special care or environments that will be provided to the elderly person for his/her specific health-related condition. Signed – Chapter 322/Statutes of 2003.

SB 549 (Vasconcellos) – Authorizes the Department of Corrections to contract with public or private nursing facilities for the incarceration and care of geriatric or disabled inmates who are in need of skilled nursing services. Requires an ombudsman within the Department of Corrections to provide services for prisoner residents of these skilled nursing facilities. Signed – Chapter 708/Statutes of 2003.

SB 620 (Scott) – Protects seniors from insurance scams through a number of provisions, such as banning deceptive advertising of life insurance policies and annuities, prohibiting sale of annuities for "Medi-Cal planning" to persons whose incomes make such planning unnecessary, prohibiting sharing of fees or commissions earned by insurance agents with attorneys, adding continuing-education requirements for insurance agents who sell annuities, and requiring that agents give prospective clients 24 hours notice in advance of specified home visits. Also establishes that it is a violation of the insurance code for agents and insurers to recommend unnecessary replacement of annuity products. Signed – Chapter 547, Statutes of 2003.

SB 686 (Ortiz) – Requires companies offering liability and standard insurance coverage to long-term health care facilities or residential care facilities for the elderly to provide notice prior to cancellation of coverage. Permits a market-assistance program or risk-pooling arrangement for insurance sales to long-term care facilities and to physicians providing care in such facilities. Also, this bill moves up by one year (2005 to 2004) the deadline for the Department of Health Services to implement a new Medi-Cal rate setting system that reflects the quality of care for residents in nursing facilities. Signed – Chapter 899/Statutes of 2003.

AB 43 (Daucher) – Renames an existing long-term care pilot project as the "Chronic Care Integration" program within the Department of Health Services, requires contracts for specified services, and converts the pilot into an ongoing program. The program provides medical, social and supportive services to patients who are residing in long-term care facilities, at home or in community-based health facilities. Vetoed.

AB 464 (Levine) – Prohibits an adult day health care center from requiring the assistance of family members at the center. Also, the bill prohibits a center from discriminating on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, or physical or mental disabilities. However, a center may not admit a client it cannot appropriately care for. Signed – Chapter 105/Statutes of 2003.

AB 632 (Kehoe) – Requires the state Department of Social Services to expand its existing obligation to pay for worker's compensation insurance for In-Home Supportive Services (IHSS) workers, by adding IHSS workers who are employed through county contracts with nonprofit or proprietary agencies. IHSS workers provide services to aged, blind and disabled persons to allow them to remain in their homes rather than receive care in more expensive facilities. Counties will reduce their contract rates with such agencies as a result of this bill. Signed – Chapter 209/Statutes of 2003.

AB 634 (Steinberg) – Discourages confidential settlement agreements in legal cases involving elder abuse under the Elder Abuse and Dependent Adult Civil Protection Act. Also provides for exceptions, such as confidential information covered by a stipulated protective order issued by a court. Signed – Chapter 242/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1131 (Jackson) – Expands the definition of crimes of a caretaker against an elderly person to include forgery, identity theft and fraud. Under current law, it is a crime for a caretaker of an elder or dependent adult to commit theft or embezzlement with respect to the property of the elder or dependent adult. By adding forgery, identify theft and fraud to the definition of this crime against elders, AB 1131 is intended to prevent financial exploitation of elderly persons by their caretakers. Signed – Chapter 543/Statutes of 2003.

Agriculture

SB 75 (Burton) – Specifies the factors that can be considered during mandatory mediation and conciliation for agricultural employees who have secured union representation but have yet to secure a contract. Signed – Chapter 870/Statutes of 2003.

SB 127 (Chesbro) – Extends the sunset (termination) date on the exemption on truck length limits for livestock trucks on portions of State Highway Route 101 and requires a study relative to the effects that the exemption has on public safety. Signed – Chapter 188/Statutes of 2003.

SB 704 (Florez) – Repeals the Agricultural Biomass-to-Energy Incentive Grant Program, and instead would require the Energy Commission, upon determining a project is eligible for funding, to provide incentives to a facility. Signed – Chapter 480/Statutes of 2003.

SB 700 (Florez) – Eliminates the agricultural exemption for any stationary equipment used in agricultural operations in the growing of crops or the raising of fowl or animals. Signed – Chapter 479/Statutes of 2003.

SB 705 (Florez) – Prohibits the issuance of any permit to a person to burn certain categories of agricultural waste within the jurisdiction of the San Joaquin Valley Unified Air Pollution Control District. Requires the district to develop and adopt, by June 1, 2005, rules establishing the best management practices for certain other weeds and maintenance. Signed – Chapter 481/Statutes of 2003.

AB 887 (Committee on Agriculture) – Specifies that grafted grape rootstock is subject to the assessment of the California Grape Rootstock Improvement Commission. Signed – Chapter 179/Statutes of 2003.

Civil Rights

A number of high-profile civil rights issues reached Governor Gray Davis's desk in the 2003 legislative session. These included measures to provide registered domestic partners the legal rights and responsibilities of married couples, AB 205 (Goldberg); to permit employers to be held liable for the sexual harassment of their employees in the workplace by others, including customers, AB 76 (Corbett), and to allow persons who do not have a legal presence in the United States to be eligible to apply for a California driver's license or ID card, SB 60 (Cedillo).

Disabilities

AB 268 (Mullin) – Requires that newly appointed state supervisors receive training in employment laws relating to person with disabilities. Signed – Chapter 165/Statutes of 2003.

AB 467 (Dutra) – Requires that ticket vending machines for public transit systems be equipped with audio instructions for visually impaired persons whenever the ticket machines are improved or replaced. Signed – Chapter 141/Statutes of 2003.

SB 262 (Kuehl) – Seeks to promote better compliance with disability-access laws in public places. Gives county counsels the same authority as district attorneys, city attorneys and the attorney general to bring disability-access cases. Authorizes all of these public attorneys to bring civil actions to impose civil penalties on persons who violate laws requiring access to buildings by disabled individuals. Additionally, SB 262 authorizes the state architect to establish a program for voluntary certification of persons desiring to be designated as building access specialists. Signed – Chapter 872/Statutes of 2003.

Protection and Advocacy, Inc. (PAI), is a private, nonprofit corporation that advocates on behalf of disabled individuals in California. This agency was created in accord with federal law. SB 577 (Kuehl), Chapter 878/Statutes of 2003, clarifies and consolidates state laws related to PAI to conform to federal law. It clarifies that broader populations than solely the developmentally disabled or mentally ill are eligible for PAI services.

Domestic Partners

Legislation by former Assemblymember Carol Migden in 1999 established the legal authority of domestic partnerships and substantially expanded the rights of registered domestic partners in 2001. The law defines a domestic partnership as a household relationship between adults of the same sex or opposite-sex partners, when one of these partners is over the age of 62. AB 205 (Goldberg), Chapter 421/Statutes of 2003, enacts the California Domestic Partner Rights and Responsibilities Act of 2003, extending to registered domestic partners substantially all rights, benefits, and obligations of married persons under state law, with the exception of rights, benefits and obligation accorded only to married persons by federal law, the California Constitution or initiative statutes. New rights and responsibilities afforded domestic partners include:

- The right to financial support during and after the relationship has terminated,
- The same rights as formerly married couples to child custody and visitation,
- The right to exercise the "marital communication" privilege; and
- The mutual responsibility for debts to third parties incurred during the partnership.

AB 17 (Kehoe) – Prohibits state agencies from contracting for goods or services for $100,000 or more with suppliers that do not offer the same benefits to domestic partners that are offered to employees with spouses. Signed – Chapter 752/Statutes of 2003.

Education

AB 54 (Oropeza) – Requires the state Commission on Teacher Credentialing, in consultation with the state Department of Education, to contract with an independent evaluator to study the availability and effectiveness of cultural competency training for teachers and administrators. Signed – Chapter 817/Statutes of 2003.

AB 833 (Steinberg) – Establishes standards to determine if educational institutions – private, public, K-12 and higher education – have effectively provided equitable athletic opportunities for members of both sexes. Signed – Chapter 660/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1250 (Laird) – Adds "hatred and intolerance prevention" as a category of reimbursable training for which eligible school districts, county offices of education, and charter schools are allowed. Signed – Chapter 346/Statutes of 2003.

Foster Care

AB 458 (Chu) – Ensures that foster children, and others in the foster care community, are not subjected to discrimination or harassment on the basis of actual or perceived race, ethnic group identification, ancestry, national origin, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, mental or physical disability, or HIV status. Requires that training programs for foster caregivers cover these rights. Signed – Chapter 331/Statutes of 2003.

Free Speech

SB 116 (Dunn) – Allows mobilehome residents to display political campaign signs of specific sizes during an election period. Signed – Chapter 249/Statutes of 2003.

SB 515 (Kuehl) – Seeks to limit lawsuits filed by large corporations against residents who are exercising First Amendment rights to sue large corporations regarding corporate behaviors. Signed – Chapter 338/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1525 (Longville) – Provides that the governing documents of a common interest development must allow displaying noncommercial signs, posters, flags or banners, although a limit may be put on the sizes. Signed – Chapter 774/Statutes of 2003.

Gender under the FEHA

AB 196 (Leno) – Incorporates the definition of gender from hate crimes statutes that prohibit violence against any person on the grounds of gender or perceived gender into the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA), thereby extending the FEHA prohibition against discrimination to that based on perceptions of an individual's gender. Permits employers to require employees to adhere to reasonable workplace appearance and standards consistent with state or federal law, provided that employees are allowed to appear or dress consistently with their gender identity. Signed – Chapter 164/Statutes of 2003.

Hate Crimes

AB 187 (Runner) – Provides that any assault or battery against a member of the U.S. armed forces because of the victim's service in the armed forces shall be punished by a jail term of up to a year and a fine of up to $2,000. This is similar to the extra penalties imposed on criminals who commit crimes because of the victims' real or perceived ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, religion, or disability, known as hate crimes. Signed – Chapter 138/Statutes of 2003.

AB 996 (Wiggins) – Protects reproductive health care facilities, including those that provide abortions, from discrimination by insurers for being targets of hate crimes or anti-reproductive-rights crimes. Specifically, the bill prohibits an insurer from canceling or refusing to renew a facilities insurance, or imposing an excessive or unfairly discriminatory premium, solely because the facility has filed a claim as a result of a hate crime or anti-reproductive-rights crime in the preceding five years. It also requires an insurer to report a cancellation or non-renewal to the state insurance commissioner if the facility has submitted a claim that is the result of an anti-reproductive-rights crime. Signed – Chapter 647/Statutes of 2003.

Housing

California fair housing law requires comprehensive accessibility features for all new multifamily construction with four or more units if the building has an elevator, and requires accessibility for all ground units in buildings without elevators. SB 1025 (Escutia), Chapter 642/Statutes of 2003, seeks to close a loophole in the law that has permitted some developers to circumvent accessibility requirements by building multi-story units without elevators or ground floor units.

b– Gives shelters that serve homeless veterans the same exemption from the state's emergency housing discrimination law as is available to shelters that serve only men or women or shelters that serve individual's 24 years of age or younger. This will allow emergency shelters to exclusively serve this homeless population and will allow these shelters to compete for state housing grants and other financial assistance for building shelters and other accommodations. Signed – Chapter 776/Statutes of 2003.

ACR 53 (Lowenthal) – Commemorates the 40th anniversary of the passage of the Fair Housing Act of 1963. Resolution Chapter 77/Statutes of 2003.

Immigrants

SB 60 (Cedillo) – Changes the eligibility requirements for a driver's license or identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, including:

- Allowing persons who do not have legal presence in the United States to be eligible to apply for a California driver's license or ID card;
- Permitting license applicants to submit a federal taxpayer ID number or other identifier number deemed appropriate by the DMV, rather than a Social Security number, where required by the department;
- Providing for a signed affidavit procedure if the applicant does not have a Social Security account; and
- Increasing fees for specified driver's licenses and deleting fees for senior ID cards.

Signed – Chapter 326/Statutes of 2003.

Proposition 209

Proposition 209, a state constitutional amendment placed on the ballot by citizens' initiative, was approved by California voters in November 1996. It added Article 1, Section 31 to the state Constitution to ban discrimination or preferential treatment based on race, ethnicity and gender in public employment, education and contracting. AB 703 (Dymally), Chapter 211/Statutes of 2003, adopts a United Nations definition of racial discrimination for purposes of Article 1, Section 31. The key provision in the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination says,

Special measures taken for the sole purpose of securing adequate advancement of certain racial or ethnic groups or individuals requiring such protection as may be necessary in order to ensure such groups or individuals equal enjoyment or exercise of human rights and fundamental freedoms shall not be deemed racial discrimination, provided, however, that such measures do not, as a consequence, lead to the maintenance of separate rights for different racial groups and that they shall not be continued after the objectives for which they were taken have been achieved.

The bill prevents private lawsuits from challenging any special measures undertaken to secure adequate advancement of minority groups requiring protection, except concerning the prohibition on granting preferential treatment. It says a government does not have to prove racial discrimination before undertaking special measures to secure adequate advancement of racial minority groups needing protection. The Pacific Legal Foundation has vowed to test the validity of AB 703 in court.

Remedies

AB 1536 (Goldberg) – Makes changes in the manner the Department of Fair Employment and Housing processes unlawful employment practice claims and unlawful housing accommodation practice claims. Signed – Chapter 447/Statutes of 2003.

Sexual Harassment

AB 76 (Corbett) – Clarifies that employers may be held liable for sexual harassment of their employees by anyone in the workplace, including customers, clients or any third party. Signed – Chapter 671/Statutes of 2003.

Workplace

AB 274 (Koretz) – Creates a rebuttable presumption that an adverse employment action taken within 60 days after an employee exercises his or her employment rights is retaliatory, unless there is clear and convincing evidence that the employee made up the claim to prevent the employer from taking an adverse employment action. Vetoed.

AB 1715 (Assembly Judiciary Committee) – Bars most employers from requiring workers to sign agreements to arbitrate claims of discrimination and sexual harassment under the Fair Employment and Housing Act. Both parties can voluntarily agree to arbitrate such disputes. Vetoed.

SB 578 (Alarcon) – Enacts labor guidelines to state procurement policies to ensure that goods and services purchased by the state of California are produced in workplaces that adhere to minimum standards for protecting workers. Signed – Chapter 711/Statutes of 2003.

SB 777 (Escutia) – Expands protections for whistleblowers and the types of whistleblower activities that are protected. Raises the burden of proof an employer must meet to show adverse action was not retaliatory. Signed – Chapter 484/Statutes of 2003 World War II Internment.

AB 781 (Lieber) – Authorizes school districts to retroactively grant a high school diploma to a person who was interned during World War II and thus unable to attend high-school graduation exercises. Signed – Chapter 130/Statutes of 2003.

Consumers

Please also see Privacy, Public Information and Identity Theft

Financial institutions will be restricted in selling or sharing their customers' personal financial information with affiliated and unaffiliated third parties under SB 1 by Senator Jackie Speier and Senate President pro Tempore John Burton. Such information, which can be shared with unaffiliated parties only with customers' consent, will include bank account balances, spending habits, mortgages and payment history. The information also cannot be shared with a company's affiliates if a customer specifically stated that it must be kept confidential. The measure, Chapter 241/Statutes of 2003, will enable consumers to inform their financial institutions of their privacy preferences through a simple form. Senator Speier has called the measure the "strongest financial privacy law in the land."

SB 590, also by Senator Speier, which was vetoed, would have prohibited merchants from requesting or requiring a consumer's personal information when it is not necessary for the transaction, and also would have banned the sharing of personal information with a third party unless necessary, authorized, or the consumer is given the chance to opt-out.

A related measure will require, beginning January 1, 2005, that a business that discloses a consumer's personal information to a third party for direct marketing purposes must provide to the consumer, upon request, a written description of recipients of that information and a description of categories of information disclosed. That bill, SB 27, Chapter 505/Statutes of 2003, is authored by Senator Liz Figueroa.

On another topic – telemarketing – that has attracted intense consumer interest, SB 33, Chapter 779/Statutes of 2003, also authored by Senator Figueroa, will revise California's "Do Not Call" (DNC) telemarketing restriction law to coordinate with the recently adopted federal DNC law, so that the federal DNC list becomes the "master list" and spares California the cost of managing its own separate DNC list.

AB 88 (Corbett), Chapter 77/Statutes of 2003, codifies a rule by the Federal Trade Commission that when a telemarketer offers a product or service to a consumer on a free-trial basis, and the transaction involves pre-acquired billing information, the telemarketer must obtain the consumer's express informed consent before imposing any charge on the consumer's financial account.

Californians who like to buy gift certificates for friends, colleagues and relatives will benefit from AB 1092 (Harman), Chapter 116/Statutes of 2003, which prohibits service fees on the sale of gift certificates and gift cards.

Contractors

SB 443 (Figueroa) – Requires the courts to impose a jail term of at least 90 days for repeated convictions of contracting without a license. Signed – Chapter 706/Statutes of 2003.

Internet

AB 68 (Simitian) – Requires disclosure of on-line privacy policies. Requires an operator of a commercial Web site that collects personally identifiable information about individual consumers residing in California who use or visit the site to conspicuously post its privacy policy on the site. Signed – Chapter 829/Statutes of 2003.

Medicine

SB 359 (Figueroa) – Makes health care professionals subject to suspension or revocation of their licenses for committing worker's compensation insurance fraud. Signed – Chapter 595/Statutes of 2003.

SB 969 (Bowen) – Requires a health-care service plan that provides telephone medical advice to ensure that only staff who are licensed, certified, or registered in a specified health care profession provide medical advice by phone. Requires that no staff member use a title that would mislead someone into believing the staff member is licensed, certified, or registered. Signed – Chapter 885/Statutes of 2003.

AB 747 (Matthews) – Requires suspension of health professionals' licenses for conviction for Medi-Cal fraud, and revocation of licenses for more than one conviction. Signed – Chapter 659/Statutes of 2003.

Identity Theft

AB 1294 (Wiggins) – Requires a debt collector to stop trying to collect a consumer debt if a consumer provides the collector with a written statement that certifies that the consumer is a victim of identity theft. A person lying on the certification is guilty of a misdemeanor. Provides that the collector may recommence debt collection activity only upon making a good-faith determination that the information does not rule out the consumer's responsibility for the debt. Requires that the collector notify the consumer of that determination in writing before recommencing collection activity. Signed – Chapter 287/Statutes of 2003.

Insurance

AB 226 (Vargas) – Prohibits the sale of corporate-owned life insurance policies for rank-and-file employees that designate the employer as the beneficiary of the policy. Signed – Chapter 328/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1083 (Cogdill) – Prohibits an insurer from issuing a life insurance policy that covers the applicant's spouse with a value exceeding $50,000 unless the spouse has signed the application or been otherwise notified. Signed – Chapter 115/Statutes of 2003.

Native Languages

SB 1022 (Perata) – Requires third-party debt collectors to provide debtors with notices, in the language initially used to contact the debtor, of their state and federal rights. Signed – Chapter 259/Statutes of 2003.

AB 309 (Chu) – Adds four additional languages – Chinese, Tagalog, Vietnamese and Korean – to a 29-year-old law that requires translations into Spanish of contracts negotiated in Spanish. Requires that a translated copy of such contracts be provided to the consumer before the contract becomes binding. Signed – Chapter 330/Statutes of 2003.

Tenants

SB 90 (Torlakson) – Establishes specific methods and deadlines for a landlord to satisfy his or her obligation to return any unused security deposit to a former tenant and to provide an itemized accounting of any amount deducted for repair or cleaning. Requires a landlord to give a former tenant copies of receipts and other documents showing charges deducted. Signed – Chapter 335/Statutes of 2003.

Toxics

SB 331 (Romero) – Extends the statute of limitations for civil actions for injury, illness or death resulting from exposure to hazardous substances to two years from the date of injury or from the date the plaintiff should reasonably have been on notice that the injury was caused by the wrongful act of another. Provides that media reports of a toxic substance in a particular area do not constitute sufficient facts to place a potential plaintiff on notice. Signed – Chapter 873/Statutes of 2003.

Vehicle Loans

SB 508 (Escutia) – Requires auto dealers to maintain copies of sales contracts that are conditioned on installment payments for at least seven years. Family Law

Please see Civil Rights section for information on domestic partners legislation.

The Legislature sent several high-profile measures on family law to Governor Davis, including SB 139 (Brulte) and SB 265 (Kuehl). The governor signed both of these bills.

Despite the passage of an earlier measure by Senator Brulte to allow mothers to give babies away to a safe haven immediately after birth, mothers are still abandoning unwanted babies in unsafe ways. SB 139 (Brulte) will expand the locations where a baby may be left and receive appropriate care.

A November 2002 report from the California Administrative Office of the Courts found that 76 percent of contested custody mediation cases in California involve a history of interpersonal violence, regardless of the demographic characteristics of the parents. This report also found that in 41 percent of all 2,500 custody cases surveyed, at least one parent reported that their child(ren) had witnessed violence between the parents. SB 265 (Kuehl) aims to protect the children in these families from experiencing future abuse.

Abandoned Newborns

In 2000 Senator Brulte authored SB 1368 to allow unwanted babies 72 hours old or younger to be given by a parent to an employee of a hospital emergency room with no questions asked and no threat of prosecution. SB 139 (Brulte), Chapter 150/Statutes of 2003, expands this Safe Haven Law to allow the surrender of the child to a safe-surrender site, generally defined as a hospital or other location designated for this purpose by a county board of supervisors.

Adoption

Court decisions placing a dependent child in an adoptive home may be appealed. This appeal process can take a long time, sometimes resulting in delays as long as two years in placing the child in a permanent adoptive home. SB 59 (Escutia), Chapter 247/Statutes of 2003, will reduce this delay time by establishing expedited appeal procedure for adoption cases where parental rights have been terminated and more than one family is competing to adopt the child.

SB 169 (Karnette) – Authorizes a minor, who was first adopted as part of a sibling group from another country and subsequently separated from his or her siblings through re-adoption, to petition the court for visitation with his or her siblings. Signed – Chapter 19/Statutes of 2003.

SB 182 (Scott) – Provides that when a birth parent revokes his or her consent to an adoption within 30 days of signing a written consent to the adoption but takes no further action to regain custody of the child and signs a written statement reinstating the original consent to the adoption, a new 30-day revocation period does not begin, as it would under current law. SB 182 establishes a new basis for adoption in a guardianship proceeding that applies when children have been living with legal guardians for at least two years and are unlikely to be returned to the custody of their parents. Signed – Chapter 251/Statutes of 2003.

SB 947 (Ducheny) – Makes procedural changes to the basic federal law that an Indian tribe generally has exclusive jurisdiction over any custody proceeding involving an Indian child. Signed – Chapter 469/Statutes of 2003.

SB 984 (Scott) – Brings state law into compliance with federal law relative to inter-ethnic adoptions and allows payments from the Welfare Advance Fund to tribes and other governmental entities. Signed – Chapter 323/Statutes of 2003

AB 416 (LaSuer) – Reduces from one year to six months the time period before a child's legal guardian may petition for adoption of the child, when the child has been legally abandoned. Signed – Chapter 81/Statutes of 2003.

Child Support

AB 738 (Jackson) – Maximizes access to federal funding for child support enforcement by changing California's enforcement monitoring process from a compliance-based to a performance-based system, in accordance with recent changes in federal law. Signed – Chapter 308/Statutes of 2003.

Child Custody and Visitation

When two parents divorce, an issue sometimes arises if the parent with custody of the child or children wants to move away from the community where the other parent lives. Family code section 7501 says the custodial parent may relocate their residence unless the court finds that such a move would prejudice the rights or welfare of the child. The leading California Supreme Court case interpreting this code section, In re Marriage of Burgess (1996), allowed the custodial parent to relocate some 40 miles away since the move was employment related and not meant to impede the children's contact with their father. SB 156 (Burton), Chapter 674/Statutes of 2003, amends section 7501 to reaffirm that the Burgess holding is the public policy and law of this state.

Requiring judges to consider any history of spousal abuse by a parent before determining child-custody or child-visitation rights for that parent first passed in California in 1990 (AB 2700, Roybal-Allard). Since that time, Senator Kuehl has authored a number of bills fine-tuning and strengthening this basic principle. This year Senator Kuehl authored SB 265, Chapter 243/Statutes of 2003.

Key provisions of SB 265 (Kuehl) are:

- In determining the best interests of the child, the legal preference for frequent and continuing contact with both parents may not be used to rebut the presumption against the award of custody to a perpetrator of domestic violence.
- Requiring custody mediators to tell their clients about the statutory presumption against custody for perpetrators of domestic violence. Since mediation often involves encouraging divorcing parents to agree to joint parenting, informing the parents will help battered spouses resist joint parenting agreements when such custody arrangements could be harmful.

AB 1516 (Bates) – Modifies the factors a court must consider in assessing the risk of child abduction in child custody proceedings to avoid having an unfair impact on domestic violence victims. Signed – Chapter 52/Statutes of 2003.

Community Property

SB 285 (Speier) – Gives a spouse the same tax relief under California income tax laws that are currently available under federal income tax laws when the other spouse understates their attributable taxes on their joint return. Signed – Chapter 52/Statutes of 2003.

Gambling

AB 673 (Horton), Chapter 210/Statutes of 2003, creates an Office of Problem and Pathological Gambling in the Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs, and allocates $3 million to the department for efforts to prevent problem gambling.

It also shifts $50.6 million from an Indian gaming distribution fund to cover shortfalls in another casino-financed fund that assists tribes with fewer gambling resources in attaining greater economic self-sufficiency. About 75 tribes will benefit from the funding shift.

SB 411 (Ducheny) – Ratifies the tribal-state gaming compacts between the state of California and the Santa Ysabel Band of Diegueno Mission Indians of the Santa Ysabel Reservation, executed on September 8, 2003, and the La Posta Band of Diegueno Mission Indians of the La Posta Indian Reservation, executed on September 9, 2003. Signed – Chapter 790/Statutes of 2003.

SB 578, Chapter 711/Statutes of 2003, by Senator Richard Alarcon will enact state procurement policies aimed at ensuring that goods and services purchased by the state of California are produced in workplaces that adhere to minimum standards for protecting workers. Another measure, SB 640 (Burton), Chapter 657/Statutes of 2003, will prohibit a state agency from contracting with a publicly held expatriate corporation or its subsidiary unless it's necessary to meet a compelling public interest.

SB 110 (Margett) – Revises the conditions under which public agencies may require a specific brand or trade name product in a public contract and deletes two obsolete requirements for sole-source bid proposals that are no longer considered useful. Signed – Chapter 233/Statutes of 2003.

Health Care, Mental Health, Public Health

Health Care

Health care services, as all other public services, were dominated by the immense 2003-04 budget deficit. The final legislative budget avoided dramatic reductions in services, but eliminated the possibility of any spending increase. The Legislature delayed implementation of expanded eligibility for Healthy Families parents and reduced reimbursement for medical providers while imposing a number of one-time accounting and program adjustments to save more than $1 billion in health expenditures.

SB 2, Chapter 673/Statutes of 2003, by Senate President pro Tempore John Burton and Senator Jackie Speier requires medium-sized and large companies to either provide employee's health insurance or pay the state to provide the coverage. It will expand employment-based health insurance to approximately 1 million currently uninsured people through its "pay or play" options. SB 2 will make California one of only two states to require employer-based insurance.

The issue of universal health coverage received significant attention in the current year as more than seven proposals were before the Legislature including, with serious attention, a single payer health model by Senator Kuehl (SB 921). Much of the remaining health legislation sought either to deal with lifestyle and public health issues such as tobacco, obesity, and HIV or to improving the efficiency of existing services.

Housing, Homelessness, and Urban Growth

Affordable Housing Funding

California faces an enormous shortage of affordable housing. If there is no change in housing assistance levels, the total unmet affordable housing needs will rise by 2020 to 3.7 million units – and this projection may be low given rising rents.

In 2002, the Legislature and the voters passed Proposition 46 (SB 1227/ Burton), a $2.1 billion bond issue for state and local affordable housing programs.

This year, use of these bond funds to replace General Fund allocations allowed the Legislature to preserve most housing programs. However, the budget shortfall allowed only limited housing-program expansions that could be accomplished without General Fund expenditures.

SB 162 (Alarcón) – Expands the Extra Credit Teacher Home Purchase Program to include classified (non-teaching) school employees who work at low-performing schools. Federally tax-exempt bonds, issued by the state, support this below-market-rate home loan program, which is a tool to help recruit and retain qualified school staff. AB 304 (Mullin) – Raises the limits on down-payment assistance available to homebuyers through the Housing in Revitalization Areas Program and the Extra Credit Teachers Program, both administered by Cal HFA. The bill also allows Cal HFA to make California Housing Loan Insurance Fund mortgage loans to families making more than 120 percent of an area's median income if necessary to meet the requirements for participation in an affordable housing program or product offered by Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac. Signed – Chapter 553/Statutes of 2003.

AB 475 (Correa) – Allows the California Public Employees Retirement System (CalPERS) to make home loans to CalPERS members of up to 100 percent of a home's value. Signed – Chapter 97/Statutes of 2003.

Affordable Housing Losses

In addition to the existing affordable-housing shortage, California faces the prospect of losing more than 150,000 apartments from its current inventory of assisted units in the next few years as affordability restrictions on these units expire.

The largest portion of the at-risk stock was financed in the 1960s and 1970s by the federal Housing and Urban Development Department. In exchange for this financing, the owners committed to maintain rents at affordable levels for 30 years. These affordability obligations are now expiring, and owners have the opportunity to renew federal assistance or convert their properties to market-rate rental housing. Currently, more than 78,000 of these units are considered "at-risk" of imminent conversion. In addition, more than 19,000 units of housing affordable to lower-income households have already been lost.

To minimize the impact of tenant displacement and to give communities an opportunity to preserve the affordability of the units, current state law requires an owner to give tenants, the state Department of Housing and Community Development (HCD), and the local government advance notice of any termination of affordability restrictions at least 12 months prior to the anticipated date of termination. Additionally, at least six months prior to the conversion, the owner must provide a more detailed notice that contains specified information for tenants, including the anticipated new rent after conversion, and specified information for HCD and the local governments, including the number of affected tenants, their ages and incomes, and the owner's plans for the development.

SB 538 (Torlakson) – Requires owners to give prospective tenants copies of any notices issued to existing tenants relating to termination of affordability restrictions. The notice shall be given at the time they are interviewed for eligibility. Signed – Chapter 255/Statutes of 2003.

Affordable and Multifamily Housing: Removing Barriers

Housing developers and advocates often cite the lack of appropriately zoned land and the uncertainty of gaining approval even on appropriately zoned sites as one of the major barriers to increasing the production of affordable housing.

Local opposition to high-density or subsidized affordable housing – known as the "not in my backyard" effect, or "NIMBYism" – has proved one of the most potent obstacles to meeting California's housing needs.

SB 619 (Ducheny) – Makes major changes to laws to remove barriers to development of affordable housing. Specifically, the bill:

- 1. Prohibits discrimination* – Prohibits a local government from rejecting or discriminating against a housing development because it consists of multifamily housing when that use is consistent with the local general plan and zoning. Also clarifies that a local government cannot deny or condition a housing development based on the method of financing or intended occupancy by low- or moderate-income persons or persons of a protected class.
- 2. Eliminates some discretionary approvals* – Provides that multifamily housing in multifamily zones is a permitted use -- not subject to a local government's discretionary approval – if it is exempt from the California Environmental Quality Act or meets specific requirements, including that at least 10 percent of the units are affordable to very-low-income households, 20 percent are affordable to low-income households, or 50 percent are affordable to moderate-income households.

3. Extends the anti-NIMBY law – Provides that protections of the anti-NIMBY ("not in my backyard") law apply to a mixed-use residential development of at least two stories in which neighborhood-serving commercial uses occupy the first floor. The law prohibits a local government from disapproving an affordable-housing development unless it makes specific findings.
4. Punishes frivolous and dilatory lawsuits – Allows a court to award attorney fees to a nonprofit housing developer when a suit challenging the developer's affordable housing project is found to be frivolous and designed to delay or thwart the development.
5. Reforms the Cal HOME program – Makes several changes to the Cal HOME loan program, including adding "creates balanced communities" to the list of weighted funding criteria.
6. Encourages affordable housing on the coast – Requires the state Coastal Commission to encourage housing opportunities for low- and moderate-income households. Also provides that the commission may impose measures that reduce adverse impacts on coastal resources – but not measures that reduce the density of a housing project below that allowed by local zoning ordinances and the state density bonus law, unless the commission finds that there is no feasible method to accommodate the density on the site without creating a significant adverse impact on coastal resources. Signed – Chapter 793/Statutes of 2003.

Common-Interest Development (CID) Homeowner Associations

In a common-interest development (CID), each homeowner has an exclusive interest in a unit and a shared interest in common-area property. Condominiums, planned unit developments, stock cooperatives, and community apartments all fall under the umbrella of CIDs. An estimated 6 million Californians live in approximately 30,000 CIDs. Each CID is governed by its own homeowners' association with an elected board, subject to the Davis-Stirling Act.

AB 104 (Lowenthal) – Requires homeowner association boards to make their accounting books and records and the minutes of proceedings available for inspection and copying by association members. Signed – Chapter 375/ Statutes of 2003.

AB 512 (Bates) – Creates a process for a homeowners association to adopt and change its operating rules, giving association members notice and an opportunity to comment. Provides that the seller of any separate interest in a CID shall provide a copy of the operating rules, along with copies of other governing documents, to prospective purchasers. Signed – Chapter 557/ Statutes of 2003.

AB 1086 (Laird) – Prohibits a community service organization (CSO) or similar entity created by a homeowners association from charging a fee for the transfer of title to an individual interest in the CID, with certain exceptions. Signed – Chapter 393/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1525 (Longville) – Permits homeowners association members to display noncommercial signs, posters, banners, or flags on their own separate-interest property in the CID, unless an association rule against such display is necessary to protect public safety or the posting violates local, state, or federal law. Allows associations to impose reasonable size restrictions prohibiting signs or posters of more than nine square feet, and flags or banners of more than 15 square feet. The bill's goal is to protect homeowners association members' free speech rights. Signed – Chapter 774/Statutes of 2003.

Community Development and Redevelopment

SB 109 (Torlakson) – Changes legal procedures to allow the attorney general more leverage to force a local redevelopment agency to correct major audit violations such as failing to deposit all required property-tax-increment revenues directly into the agency's Low and Moderate Income Housing Fund. Also allows the state controller to perform quality-control reviews of redevelopment agencies' independent financial audit reports. Signed – Chapter 318/Statutes of 2003.

SB 114 (Torlakson) – Eliminates local governments' authority to provide financial assistance to a vehicle dealer or "big box retailer" moving from one community to another in the same market area. Signed – Chapter 781/ Statutes of 2003.

SB 305 (Ducheny) – Transfers administration of the Enterprise Zone Program to the Housing and Community Development Department from the Technology, Trade and Commerce Agency, which the Legislature abolished in a budget cut. Signed – Chapter 593/Statutes of 2003.

SB 1045 (Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee) – Requires local redevelopment agencies to transfer $135 million to the Educational Revenue Augmentation Fund to reduce the state General Fund contribution needed to meet the school funding minimum guaranteed by Proposition 98. Signed – Chapter 260/Statutes of 2003.

AB 922 (Maze) – Would have required the California Infrastructure and Economic Development Bank (I-Bank) to consider various factors in the selection of infrastructure projects to fund to the extent practicable. The bill's intent was to direct more I-Bank funds to projects in a high-unemployment and low-wage areas. Vetoed.

Fair Housing

Farm-Labor Housing

Farm workers often suffer from some of California's worst housing shortages and housing conditions.

SB 306 (Ducheny) – Allows the Housing and Community Development Department (HCD) to make grants or loans under the Joe Serna, Jr. Farmworker Housing Grant Program for acquisition of manufactured homes, to address the impact of displacement on farm worker families due to closure of substandard mobilehome parks. Clarifies that if 12 or fewer mobilehomes, manufactured homes, or recreational vehicles are located on agricultural land and rented or leased to agricultural employees, an annual permit to operate or pay related fees is not required by either the Mobilehome Parks Act or the Special Occupancy Parks Act. Signed – Chapter 814/Statutes of 2003.

Homelessness and Supportive Housing

Supportive housing is permanent housing reserved for disabled persons who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless and need support services to live independently. Currently, there are two state programs to fund supportive housing:

- The Multifamily Housing Program (MHP) in HCD provides construction funds. This program recently received an allocation of $195 million from the Proposition 46 housing bond funds; and
- The Supportive Housing Initiatives Act (SHIA) in the Mental Health Department, intended to provide service and operating funds. There is no current funding for this program, and the program is scheduled to sunset on January 1, 2004.

A third related program, the Adult and Older Adult Mental Health System of Care Act in the Mental Health Department, known as the AB 34 program, funds counties to provide comprehensive services to mentally ill homeless persons. These funds are often used to provide temporary housing but can be used to place clients in permanent housing.

AB 1475 (Steinberg) – Amends the three programs that fund supportive housing to try to maximize existing resources by leveraging AB 34 services funding and Proposition 46 capital development funds with each other, thereby accelerating the development of supportive housing for homeless mentally ill people. Amends MHP by requiring HCD to give priority to supportive housing projects. Extends the 2004 sunset date on the SHIA to January 1, 2009. Requires counties that receive a AB 34 grant after January 1, 2004, to contract with sponsors of new supportive housing developments to the greatest extent possible, and encourages participating counties to commit a portion of their grant to long-term leases for units in such developments. Signed – Chapter 578/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1594 (Assembly Veterans Affairs Committee) – Prohibits emergency shelter or transitional housing providers from restricting occupancy on the basis of military veteran status, in the same manner that providers are prohibited from discriminating against a person because of sex or because the person is 24 years of age or younger. Signed – Chapter 776/Statutes of 2003.

Homeowner Foreclosure Protection

SB 455 (Torlakson) – Authorizes a court to award a civil penalty of up to $2,500 to a homeowner in foreclosure who wins a suit against an equity purchaser for violations including transferring property prior to the cooling-off period, violating contract terms, fraud, or misleading or unconscionably taking advantage of the homeowner. Also increases the maximum criminal fine from $10,000 to $25,000 for such violations. Signed – Chapter 74/Statutes of 2003.

SB 804 (Machado) – Increases the homestead exemption for money judgments from $125,000 to $150,000 for individuals 65 years or older, and physically or mentally disabled individuals. If a home cannot be sold for an amount greater than the homestead exemption, it shall not be sold to satisfy a judgment. Signed – Chapter 64/Statutes of 2003.

Mobilehomes and Manufactured Housing

SB 54 (Dunn) – Declares that it is necessary for HCD or the delegated local enforcement agency to follow-up with a mobilehome park resident who filed a health or safety complaint by notifying him or her in advance of the inspection so the resident can talk to the inspector. Declares that it is necessary for the enforcement agency to notify the resident of the inspector's findings. Provides that mobilehome park and special occupancy park lot lines shall not be moved or adjusted without a permit issued by the enforcement agency. Signed – Chapter 815/Statutes of 2003.

SB 116 (Dunn) – Allows owners of mobilehomes in mobilehome parks to display campaign signs in their windows or on the sides of their mobilehomes for 90 days before an election and 15 days after the election. Prohibits park management from requiring that a mobilehome be removed upon sale to a third party. Signed – Chapter 561/Statutes of 2003.

AB 693 (Corbett) – Provides that a mobilehome park owner who willfully violates the Mobilehome Residency Law may be liable for a statutory penalty of up to $2,000, or punitive damages – but not both – if the conduct is malicious, fraudulent, or oppressive. Signed – Chapter 98/Statutes of 2003.

AB 767 (Nakano) – Permits mobilehome park management to evict a tenant who is convicted of committing certain crimes in the park, including child molestation, arson, battery resulting in serious bodily injury, or assault with a firearm. Signed – Chapter 388/Statutes of 2003.

AB 805 (Diaz) – Requires mobilehome park owners to provide residents with a notice that failure to make timely payment of rent or other charges three times or more in a year can result in a termination of tenancy without a grace period or further notice. The required notice must be placed in a late payment notice already required by existing law. Signed – Chapter 85/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1173 (Haynes) – Provides that a mobilehome park space is exempt from rent control only if the mobilehome owner is domiciled out of state. Also provides that a mobilehome is eligible for rent control when it is being held available for sale by the owner, so long as the homeowner actively markets and advertises the mobilehome for sale in good faith to bona fide purchasers. Signed – Chapter 132/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1287 (Lieber) – Requires mobilehome park management to provide prospective mobilehome buyers with a notice regarding tenants' financial obligations, including a disclosure of rent and other charges that the prospective buyer would be charged. Signed – Chapter 767/Statutes of 2003.

Landlord-Tenant Relations

SB 90 (Torlakson) – Establishes specific methods and deadlines for a landlord to satisfy his or her obligation to return any unused security deposit to a former tenant and to provide an itemized accounting of any amount deducted for repair or cleaning. Requires a landlord to give a former tenant copies of receipts and other documents showing charges deducted. Signed – Chapter 335/Statutes of 2003.

SB 345 (Kuehl) – Requires that, if a tenant prevails in an eviction (called an "unlawful detainer") lawsuit within 60 days after filing suit, the court records must be sealed. This is intended to protect tenants from future unfair denial of housing. Requires that a landlord filing an unlawful detainer suit must attach the lease and other specified documents. Clarifies that a notice of the landlord's entry into the unit is not required to respond to an emergency or if the tenant is present and consents to the entry at the time of the entry, or has orally agreed in the preceding week to a specific entry time. Signed – Chapter 787/Statutes of 2003.

AB 647 (Nunez) – Provides tenants additional recourse when a landlord fails to abate a nuisance or repair a substandard condition after a housing code enforcement officer has provided notice. Prohibits a landlord from demanding rent, collecting rent, issuing a notice of a rent increase, or issuing a three-day notice to pay or quit if specified conditions exist as provided under existing law prior to the landlord's demand or notice. Signed – Chapter 109, Statutes of 2003.

AB 1059 (Lieber) – Provides additional protections to tenants against a landlord who retaliates against a tenant for the tenant's exercise of his or her rights or to influence the tenant to vacate the rental premises. Provides that a landlord may not use or threaten force or engage in theft, extortion, or unlawful entry to get a tenant to vacate. Provides that a tenant is entitled to a civil penalty of up to $2,000 for a violation of the bill's requirements. Increases the limit on punitive damages that may be awarded to a tenant who has been the subject of a retaliatory eviction from $1,000 to $2,000. Signed – Chapter 542/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1217 (Leno) – Increases the authority of Los Angeles, Sad Diego, and San Francisco to stem the loss of residential hotel rooms from the affordable-housing stock. Creates an exception to the Ellis Act for guestrooms and efficiency units in residential hotels in those cities that were built before 1990 and for which the owner has not filed a notice to withdraw the units from the market before 2004. The Ellis Act prohibits a local government from compelling most residential rental property owners to continue offering their property as rental housing. Signed – Chapter 766/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1384 (Maddox) – Creates an exception to the law requiring a landlord to notify a tenant of the tenant's right to an initial inspection of the premises to identify deficiencies that may result in a charge against the tenant's security deposit. Provides that the landlord is not required to provide the notice when the tenancy is terminated pursuant to a three-day notice for breach of the lease and the breach is not cured or curable by the tenant. Signed – Chapter 576/ Statutes of 2003.

AB 1576 (Liu) – Provides that tenants may not be evicted to comply with the requirement that water heaters be braced, anchored, or strapped. Also provides that failure to brace a water heater is a nuisance that building-code inspectors may enforce. Signed – Chapter 581/Statutes of 2003.

Senior and Disabled Housing

SB 211 (Dunn) – Specifies requirements for the form and content of admission agreements for residential care facilities for the elderly, and requires a facility to conspicuously post a copy of its agreement within the facility. AB 1400 (Wolk) – Requires developers of new housing to offer buyers a list of "universal design" modifications that may be made to the home at the buyer's expense. The requirement takes effect July 1, 2004, and stays in effect until the Housing and Community Development Department adopts guidelines or a model universal-design ordinance pursuant to AB 2787 (Aroner, Chapter 726/Statutes of 2002). With respect to housing, "universal design" refers to making dwellings accessible or easily adaptable for persons with mobility problems. Many universal design elements are relatively small items that, when installed at the time of construction, add little or no cost to the price of a home or apartment. Signed – Chapter 648/Statutes of 2003.

Standards and Enforcement

SB 262 (Kuehl) – Adds civil penalties to the remedies prosecutors may seek in enforcing building access laws for physically disabled persons. Prosecutors enforcing access laws in privately owned buildings open to the public may seek civil penalties of $2,500 for each violation. For each violation that remains in effect 90 days after the violator receives written notice from a government agency, the violator shall be subject to an additional civil penalty of not less than $500 or more than $2,500 per violation per day. Signed – Chapter 872/Statutes of 2003.

SB 443 (Figueroa) – Requires jail terms of at least 90 days for repeated convictions of contracting without a license, unless the court finds unusual circumstances justifying a lesser penalty or a fine. Signed – Chapter 706/Statutes of 2003.

SB 567 (Torlakson) – Increases the fines for second or subsequent infraction violations of local building and safety codes. Provides that an infraction violation is punishable by a fine up to $100 for a first violation, up to $500 for second violation of the same ordinance within one year, and a fine up to $1,000 for each additional violation of the same ordinance within one year of the first violation. Signed – Chapter 60/Statutes of 2003.

SB 919 (Ortiz) – Raises the maximum county jail term for misdemeanor assault or battery without injury on a code enforcement officer from six months to one year, and increases the maximum fine from $1,000 to $2,000. Signed – Chapter 274/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1034 (Mullin) – Clarifies that local governments may collect any fees, costs, or charges incurred to enforce local ordinances that implement state building and fire safety codes, in addition to the state codes themselves. Allows local building officials to institute any appropriate action to abate a nuisance after less than 30 days' notice if necessary to abate or prevent an imminent threat to health and safety. Requires a property owner with outstanding citations to record and provide the enforcement agency with the names, addresses, and driver's license numbers of all buyers and sellers within five days of sale or transfer. Signed – Chapter 474/Statutes of 2003.

Urban Growth and Jobs-Housing Balance

While recent interest rates helped push new housing construction to its highest point in over a decade, California in 2002 still produced at least 55,000 fewer housing units than it needed to keep up with population growth. The greatest shortages are in multifamily housing (condominiums and apartments) and especially in affordable housing.

The Planning and Zoning Law requires every county and city to adopt a general plan, including a housing element. The housing element must contain an assessment of housing needs, including an inventory of land suitable for residential development. The element must also contain a five-year action program, including the identification of adequate sites to encourage the development of housing for all income levels. Last year, the Legislature required each city and county to ensure that its inventory or programs of adequate housing sites can accommodate its share of regional housing needs during that planning period (AB 2292 (Dutra), Chapter 706/Statutes of 2002). Called the "no net loss" law, the 2002 bill forces communities to find other sites for higher densities if they retreat from approved densities.

SB 491 (Ducheny) – Gives local governments a deadline of one additional year to revise the housing elements of their general plans. Signed – Chapter 58/ Statutes of 2003.

SB 639 (Torlakson) – Extends the Inter-Regional Partnership State Pilot Project to Improve the Balance of Jobs and Housing through 2008. The IRP tests policies and incentives to mitigate imbalances of jobs and housing in Alameda, Contra Costa, Santa Clara, San Joaquin, and Stanislaus counties. Signed – Chapter 501/Statutes of 2003.

AB 51 (Simitian) – Would have require the land-use element of a city or county general plan to identify categories, if any, that provide child-care facilities other than family day-care homes. Vetoed.

AB 170 (Reyes) – Requires San Joaquin Valley local governments to plan for air quality in their general plans. Signed – Chapter 472/Statutes of 2003.

AB 218 (Simitian) – Would have required the state Finance Department to make a determination based on U.S. Census Bureau definitions when there is a dispute between the HCD and a local government, in preparing the local government's general plan, regarding what constitutes a housing unit. Vetoed.

AB 305 (Mullin) – Requires a city or county to grant additional density bonuses, concessions and other incentives if a child-care facility is included as part of a proposed housing development that is entitled to density bonuses under existing law, unless the local government finds that the community has adequate child-care facilities. Signed – Chapter 430/Statutes of 2003.

AB 518 (Salinas) – Requires a local agency formation commission to consider how a proposed city or county boundary change will affect the community in meeting its fair share of the regional housing needs. Signed – Chapter 176/Statutes of 2003.

AB 668 (Cox) – Allows a county and a newly incorporated city to agree to revise their respective regional housing-need allocations. Signed – Chapter 769/Statutes of 2003.

AB 677 (Firebaugh) – Requires a local government agency or private entity seeking housing development approval to file a public notice with the state Office of Planning and Research if the project qualifies for one of the housing exemptions from the California Environmental Quality Act. The exemptions are for certain farm-worker housing, affordable housing, and residential in-fill projects. Without an exemption, each projects requires an environmental impact report, a negative declaration, or a mitigated declaration. The bill's intent is to track the exemptions and any resulting benefits. Signed – Chapter 837/ Statutes of 2003.

AB 728 (Leno) – Expands financing options for condominium development by making it easier for developers to pre-sell condominiums before they are built and to use the binding sales contracts and escrow deposits as the basis for obtaining bigger construction loans at better terms. The bill should help the market meet the strong demand for condos, which are a way to use land efficiently. Signed – Chapter 434/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1309 (Goldberg) – Authorizes a city or county to acquire and utilize or convey real property for construction of new school-site replacement housing. The bill's intent is to give local governments a tool to replenish housing when it is taken for the construction of new schools in extreme affordable-housing shortage areas. Signed – Chapter 574/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1347 (Maze) – Requires cities and counties to follow the accounting and reporting requirements of the Mitigation Fee Act for any fees they receive or costs they recover from development agreements signed on or after January 1, 2004. Signed – Chapter 288/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1410 (Wolk) – Requires state or local agencies that are selling surplus property in a transit village area or in-fill opportunity zone to give a right of first refusal to the county, city, or redevelopment, public transportation, or housing agency in which the property is located. Signed – Chapter 772/Statutes of 2003.

Human Services

Realignment

Under state statutes enacted in the early 1990s, referred to as "realignment," much of the fiscal and program responsibility for a number of programs in health, mental health, and human services was transferred to counties. Statutory provisions provide support for those local programs through dedicated sales-tax revenues. Current law also specifies which programs, services and "caseload" growth receive priority for funding should new funds become available through growth in sales-tax revenue.

However, as a number of years have passed since realignment was signed into law, there is a growing recognition that the revenue provisions and allocations need to be reviewed and revised. Different programs have grown at varying rates, causing unavoidable caseload increases, due in part to an increasing elderly population. This has created fiscal pressures on other health and human services programs. This year the Legislature expressed its intent to review the complicated realignment system and recommend improvements.

AB 1716 (Assembly Human Services Committee) – Makes temporary revisions to the allocation of sales tax revenue to local human services programs under the realignment fiscal allocation system. AB 1716 specifies that, for fiscal year 2003-04 only, no sales tax growth account funds shall be allocated to other programs until the caseload portion of the base of each county's social service account is funded to the level funded in 2001-02. AB 1716 also states the intent that specified committees of the Legislature shall develop recommendations on the existing realignment legislation. Signed – Chapter 450/Statutes of 2003.

Child Abuse Prevention/Foster Care Services

The focus of legislation this year on child abuse prevention and foster care has been to add protections and services for children, especially in the areas of the education of children in foster care and helping children in foster care maintain important relationships. Another theme has been to increase prevention of child abuse by adding more professionals to the list of mandated reporters and by increasing the statute of limitations on certain crimes committed against children who are in foster care.

SB 316 (McPherson) – Adds custodial officers to the list of professionals mandated to report to law enforcement any case of suspected child abuse or child neglect. The existing Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act requires a mandated reporter to report whenever he or she, in the scope of his or her professional capacity or employment, has knowledge of or observes a child whom he or she knows or reasonably suspects is the victim of child abuse or neglect.

Signed – Chapter 122/Statutes of 2003.

SB 591 (Scott) – Makes a number of changes to foster care statutes intended to protect children's privacy and safety, while giving foster parents needed information about the child. Among other provisions, the bill permits foster parents to obtain records proving the child's age in order to enroll the child in school, requires that caregivers be provided with a caregiver placement agreement, requires caregivers be provided information about sibling visitation, and requires that the child's case plan include information about the willingness of caregivers to provide legal permanency for the child. Signed – Chapter 812/ Statutes of 2003.

SB 739 (Ducheny) – Establishes a historic two-state pilot project permitting the California Department of Social Services to enter agreements with the Washoe tribe of both California and Nevada, allowing the tribe to administer child welfare services or foster care. Existing law requires each county to provide child welfare and foster care services to children residing in the county, but also authorizes such services to be delegated to Indian tribes through legal agreements that meet the provisions of state and federal law. The pilot project authorized by SB 739 will continue until January 1, 2007, and will provide services to a broad population of Indian children and families within Indian reservations or rancherias. Signed – Chapter 373/Statutes of 2003.

AB 408 (Steinberg) – Makes numerous revisions to foster care statutes, including requiring child welfare agencies to make reasonable attempts to maintain relationships important to a child over age 10 when that child is placed in a foster-care group home. Permits a child age 10 or over to attend a hearing on and participate in his or her permanency planning. Current law requires that courts review every six months the placement of and services that have been provided to children in foster care and their families, where applicable. This bill requires those services to include reasonable efforts to maintain emotional relationships with individuals that a child over age 10 has identified as important to him or her, such as relatives. Signed – Chapter 813/ Statutes of 2003.

AB 464 (Murray) – Requires local education agencies to include a foster-care group home representative in a special education Individualized Education Plan meeting when the meeting is being held to determine educational decisions for a disabled child residing in a foster-care group home. The purpose of this bill is to allow foster-care group home staff to provide input into the educational decisions and school placement of the child in special education who is in their care. Signed – Chapter 105/Statutes of 2003.

AB 490 (Steinberg) – Among other provisions strengthening the educational opportunities of children in foster care, requires local educational agencies to designate a staff person as educational liaison for foster children to facilitate school enrollment and transfer, when necessary. Many children in foster care are not provided sufficient educational support and do not graduate from high school. AB 490 enhances requirements on the foster care program by requiring licensed children's institutions and foster family homes to insure children placed in their care attend school and requires that the regular local school be the first choice to be considered, prior to consideration of juvenile court schools. Also, requires school districts and county offices of education to accept, for credit, full or partial coursework completed by a child at other schools. Signed – Chapter 862/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1151 (Dymally) – Extends the statute of limitations for claims of injury or death of a minor child that occur while the child is in foster care. AB 1151 states legislative intent that the state has a special duty to protect children that the state places in foster care that the state assumes responsibility for the child's safety. A recent court case found that a county was not liable for a foster caregiver's sexual abuse of a child due a statute of limitations. Thus, AB 1151 extends that statute of limitations to insure the county is held responsible for the protective custody of children in the county's care. Signed – Chapter 847/ Statutes of 2003.

Child Care

Increasing access to child care, which is necessary for parents to retain employment, was the major theme of child care legislation enacted by the Legislature this year.

AB 1668 (Salinas) – Authorizes local education agencies that provide before and after-school child care to access a revolving loan fund for the purchase of portable buildings or renovation of existing buildings. Child care offered at the school site, before and after school, is convenient for both parents and children and reduces the need to transport the children to a different site during the work day. Under AB 1668 schools that already provide child care pursuant to the Cal-SAFE program will be eligible to apply for funding from another existing funding source, the Child Care Facilities Revolving Fund program. Signed – Chapter 523/Statutes of 2003.

TANF/CalWORKs/Food Stamps

The federal Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) program, that provides almost $3 billion to California each year, was due to be reauthorized by the U.S. Congress this year. During 2003, Congress deliberated on a number of changes to the TANF program that would affect the operation and policies of the state's CalWORKs program and, depending upon the specific change, either cost or save the state a considerable amount of state funds. Congress recently has extended the deadline for reauthorization to March 2004. In addition, Congress is considering reauthorization of the federal Food Stamp program, the Head Start program and the Child Care and Development Block Grant. California has a significant interest in the reauthorization of these programs that provide billions of dollars and needed support to households in California.

SCR 12 (Alarcón) – Establishes a two-house Joint Committee to Develop a Master Plan to End Poverty in California. As 14 percent of Californians live on incomes below the federal poverty level (i.e., below a "subsistence" level), with a high proportion of children included in this group, the Joint Committee will report to the Legislature by December 2005 on the state of poverty in California. The committee's Master Plan is required to recommend solutions to end poverty. Resolution Chapter 117/Statutes of 2003.

SJR 3 (Alarcón) – Calls upon Congress, during the TANF reauthorization process, to extend the federal TANF time limits, increase federal TANF funding to states, and allow states more flexibility in designing employment strategies. Due to the national recession and high unemployment rates in many states, SJR 3 urges Congress to extend the time limits for families in the TANF program to allow them more time to find employment, including those who are meeting work requirements or who live in high unemployment areas. The increased TANF funding is requested to provide more services to families, such as child care. Resolution Chapter 136/Statutes of 2003.

AJR 38 (Firebaugh) Calls upon the California Congressional Delegation to use the opportunity – offered by this year's expected federal reauthorizations of health and human services programs – to seek revisions in the formulas used to allocate federal grant funds to states, in order to relieve funding formula disparities that disadvantage California. Disparities exist to the extent that California taxpayers pay more in federal taxes than they receive back in federal grant programs, in comparison to other states. A recent federal Government Accounting Office study revealed that federal funding formulas disadvantage California low-income households (and taxpayers) by providing less federal support per capita than low-income households receive in other states through those programs. AJR 38 also asks President Bush to resume publishing a federal document, the "Budget Information for States," that is necessary for states to determine the equity of funding formulas. Resolution Chapter 155/Statutes of 2003.

AB 231 (Steinberg) – Makes numerous revisions to the Food Stamp program, including revising the method of determining the value of an automobile that CalWORKs and food stamp recipients can retain and meet eligibility requirements for these two programs. This bill also eliminates a five-month limit on transitional food stamps for families leaving the Cal-WORKs program. In addition, AB 231 revises specified eligibility procedures for food stamp applications, to the extent allowed by federal law. Food stamp benefits for the most part are paid by the federal government. Signed – Chapter 743/Statutes of 2003.

Immigrants

SB 60 (Cedillo), Chapter 326/Statutes of 2003, changes the eligibility requirements for a driver's license or identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles, including:

- Allowing persons who do not have legal presence in the United States to be eligible to apply for a California driver's license or ID card;
- Permitting license applicants to submit a federal taxpayer ID number or other identifier number deemed appropriate by the DMV, rather than a Social Security number where required by the department;
- Providing for a signed affidavit procedure if the applicant does not have a Social Security account; and
- Increasing fees for specified driver's licenses and deleting fees for senior ID cards.

SB 328 (Escutia) – Allows nonresident students to apply for student aid administered by the California Community Colleges if they have attended high school for three years or more in California, have graduated or attained graduation equivalency, have signed an affidavit to attain legal citizenship if they do not already have such status and have registered at an accredited institution of higher education. Vetoed.

AB 522 (Diaz) – Requires local officers and employees to accept the identification card issued by the Mexican Consulate Office as personal identification. Allows peace officers to ask for additional evidence of identification if they believe the document is forged, altered or identifies someone else. Vetoed.

Information Technology and High-Techology Crime

E-commerce

SB 220 (Romero) – Authorizes the secretary of state and the Corporations Department to accept and file documents presented in electronic form, including faxes. Expands the definition of "signature" to include a signature in a facsimile document presented for filing with the secretary of state or the department. Signed – Chapter 273/Statutes of 2003.

E-government

Budget legislation requires the development of a plan to consolidate the Health and Human Services Data Center and the Stephen P. Teale Data Center by July 1, 2004.

SB 99 (Burton) – Makes permanent the Legislative Data Center's pilot system that "broad bands" certain information technology (IT), civil-service classifications and conducts exams on a position-by-position basis. Finds that the system has improved the LDC's ability to match candidates and IT jobs, and has expedited hiring. Signed – Chapter 528/Statutes of 2003.

AB 722 (Matthews) – Authorizes the General Services Department to utilize an online-bidding procedure known as "reverse auctioning" for the acquisition of goods, services, and IT. Defines a "reverse auction" as a competitive on-line solicitation process for fungible goods, IT, or services in which vendors compete against each other online in real time in an open and interactive environment. Signed – Chapter 266/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1245 (Laird) – Would have created an on-line process to allow the public to comment on the drafts of proposed statewide ballot initiatives, and allow the proponents to amend their initiatives before they start circulating the petitions to put them on the ballot. The bill's intent was to permit correction of errors, oversights, and unclear language and thus reduce the lawsuits and uncertainty that often follow passage of initiatives. Specifically, the bill would have required initiative proponents to give a draft to the secretary of state, who must post it on the Internet for 30 days for comment. The proponents then could decide whether to revise the draft. Vetoed.

AB 1418 (Laird) – Requires the Contractors State License Board to make information regarding contractors who willfully violate labor laws available on its Web site. Signed – Chapter 849/Statutes of 2003.

Electronics Recycling

SB 20 (Sher) – Creates a comprehensive system to collect and recycle electronic waste (called e-waste), to end the illegal disposal of electronic devices, and to establish manufacturer responsibility for phasing out hazardous materials in electronic devices and increase the use of recycled materials. A manufacturer's fee of $6 to $10 per electronic device sold starting July 1, 2004, and civil penalties of up to $5,000 per violation, are to support the new system. Signed – Chapter 526/Statutes of 2003.

High-Technology Crime

The 2003-04 state budget eliminates $8.5 million for grants to local law-enforcement agencies for technology equipment purchases. However, it continues to provide $10.2 million for the High Technology Theft, Apprehension, and Prosecution program, which funds the regional high-tech crime task forces, and $3.3 million for the High Technology Identity Theft program.

AB 49 (Simitian) – Creates the California High Technology Crimes Task Force comprised of the existing state-funded regional task forces. Also directs the High Technology Crime

Advisory Committee to evaluate the new state task force's work annually. Signed – Chapter 618/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1277 (Cohn) – Adds willful violations of labor laws, recording piracy, illegal sale of live performance, and failure to disclose origin of recording or audiovisual work to the list of crimes that should be a priority for the high-tech crime task forces. Adds a representative of the Recording Industry Association of America to the High Technology Crime Advisory Committee.

Also restores the statutory framework – but not the funding – of the California Film Commission, largely related to promoting filming in California and marketing programs, which the Legislature eliminated as a budget cut. Signed – Chapter 662/Statutes of 2003.

Internet Privacy and Spam

SB 186 (Murray) – Enacts the United States' strongest law against unsolicited electronic-mail advertisements (called "spam"). Specifically, the bill:

1. Authorizes a spam recipient, an e-mail service provider, or the attorney general to sue for actual damages, and/or liquidated damages of $1,000 per unsolicited e-mail ad, up to $1 million per incident. Cuts the liquidated damages to a maximum of $100 for each unsolicited ad, or a maximum of $100,000 per incident, if the defendant implements practices to prevent spam. Provides for reasonable attorney's fees and costs to a prevailing plaintiff.
2. Allows consumers to opt out of receiving otherwise-legal e-mail ads sent pursuant to a preexisting or current business relationship. The consumer may call a toll-free phone number provided by the advertiser to stop receiving the ads, or may send an "unsubscribe" e-mail to the advertiser. However, this opt-out option is not available to persons who receive free e-mail service from providers that send them e-mail ads.
3. Prohibits spam sent to or from California under any of the following circumstances: the ad contains or is accompanied by a third party's domain name without the permission of the third party; the ad contains or is accompanied by falsified, misrepresented, obscured, or forged header information; or the ad has a subject line that a person knows will likely mislead a recipient, acting reasonably under the circumstances, about a material fact regarding the contents or subject matter of the message.
4. Prohibits sending spam by collecting e-mail addresses on the Internet or using e-mail addresses obtained by automated means.

The bill takes effect January 1, 2004, unless Congress preempts it by passing a federal law and prohibiting states from adopting stronger laws such this bill. Signed – Chapter 487/Statutes of 2003.

AB 68 (Simitian) – Requires operators of Web sites and on-line services that collect personally identifiable information about California consumers to post and comply with specified privacy policies. Signed – Chapter 829/Statutes of 2003.

Political Cyberfraud

AB 277 (Dutra) – Prohibits "political cyberfraud," a knowing and willful act concerning a political Web site committed with the intent to deny a person access to the site, deny a person the opportunity to register a domain name for a political Web site, cause a person reasonably to believe that a political Web site has been posted by a person other than the person who posted the Web site. For purposes of this law, "political Web site" is a Web site that urges or appears to urge the support or opposition of a state or local ballot measure.

Also allows a court to consider an individual's intent to mislead, deceive, or defraud voters in determining whether the individual engaged in the bad-faith registration of an Internet domain name that is identical or confusingly similar to the personal name of another living person or a deceased personality. Allows a court to order the transfer of a domain name as part of the relief awarded for a violation. Signed – Chapter 277/Statutes of 2003.

Public-Safety Communications

SB 605 (McPherson) – Would have required a state agency that purchases public-safety radio equipment to comply with recommendations of the Public Safety Radio Strategic Planning Committee. Would have allowed agencies to continue to use a low band frequency system to maintain their statewide inter-operability without being affected by the requirements for new equipment purchases. Vetoed.

Taxes

Internet sales grew to $79 billion nationally in 2002, accounting for 3 percent of all retail sales, and may hit $95 billion in 2003. U.S. Department of Commerce figures show on-line sales grew 28 percent in the three months leading up to Christmas 2002 when compared to the same 3-month period a year before.

Out-of-state retailers with no business nexus (generally, a physical presence) in California are not required to collect state sales taxes. Instead, Californians who buy from out-of-state retailers are required to pay an equivalent use tax. However, individuals who buy by Internet, phone, or mail order typically evade the tax.

As a result of non-payment, the state lost $1.75 billion in sales tax revenue in 2001, according to one study. Nationwide, state and local governments lost up to $13.3 billion in sales tax from Internet purchases in 2001, and that number is expected to grow to $45 billion by 2006.

California retailers complain that the current system puts them at a competitive disadvantage to out-of-state retailers.

No one state alone has the constitutional power to require all out-of-state retailers to collect the state's sale or use taxes, and the complexity of the states' tax system has been a barrier to reaching a realistic agreement.

SB 157 (Bowen) – Creates a board to negotiate a national Streamlined Sales and Use Tax Agreement with other states. California will become the 36th state to join the Streamlined Sales Tax Project. The goal is to develop measures to design, test, and implement a system that radically simplifies sales and use taxes. The board is to recommend changes in state law to implement the agreement. The long-term purpose is to seek congressional approval to compel out-of-state retailers to collect a simplified, streamlined tax on purchases and distribute revenues to the states where the consumers live. Signed – Chapter 702/Statutes of 2003.

SB 1009 (Alpert) – Authorizes individuals to report and pay use taxes on their state income-tax forms for purchases they make from out-of-state retailers who do not pay California sales taxes. Also prevents a state agency from buying from a vendor or contractor that does not have a valid seller's permit or has not registered with the Board of Equalization. This is intended to signal that the state does not wish to do business with entities that do not collect California sales and use taxes. According to the Board of Equalization, the bill will stop the loss of $13 million per year in state and local sales and use taxes; $8 million from corporate and franchise taxpayers and $5 million from individual taxpayers. Signed – Chapter 718/Statutes of 2003.

Telemedicine

SB 969 (Bowen) – Requires a health-care service plan that provides telephone medical advice to ensure that only staff who are licensed, certified, or registered in a specified health care profession provide medical advice. Requires that no staff member use a title that would mislead someone into believing the staff member is licensed, certified, or registered. Defines "medical advice" to include assessment, evaluation, referral, or advice to patients or family members. Signed – Chapter 885/Statutes of 2003.

AB 116 (Nakano) – Clarifies that the Telemedicine Development Act applies to dentists, podiatrists, psychologists, marriage and family therapists, and clinical social workers, so that they may deliver health-care services using interactive audio, video, or data communications without person-to-person contact. Signed – Chapter 20/Statutes of 2003.

Insurance

A measure stemming from the murder of Laci Peterson and her unborn son stipulates that a person has a right to know if a spouse could gain financially from his or her death. AB 1083, Chapter 115/Statutes of 2003, by Assemblymember Dave Cogdill will prohibit an insurer from issuing a life insurance policy that covers the applicant's spouse with a face value exceeding $50,000 unless the spouse has either signed the application or been otherwise notified.

An investigation into the Peterson case concluded that Laci Peterson had been in the room when her husband Scott, who has been charged with the murders, signed an insurance policy on her life. However, the investigation also revealed that the state does not specifically require that a spouse be aware when a policy is drawn on his/her life.

On the auto insurance front, SB 841 by Senator Don Perata amends California's voter-approved Proposition 103 "good driver discounts" by allowing automobile insurers to provide a discount to customers who have been consistently insured by one or more insurance companies. In signing the bill, Governor Gray Davis noted that the Legislative Counsel recently opined that

SB 841 furthers the intent of Proposition 103 by encouraging rate competition among insurers by permitting insured drivers to shop for the best rates without fear of losing "loyalty" discounts given for maintaining insurance with a single company.

The Foundation for Taxpayer and Consumer Rights reports that about 85 percent of automobile insurers offer loyalty discounts. SB 841 will allow a consumer to keep such discounts when shopping for another insurer with lower rates.

Davis, however, conditioned his signature on a commitment from the bill's author to seek follow-up legislation to set an expiration date for the bill, along with a five-year study of its consequences on low-income and previously uninsured individuals. SB 841, Chapter 169/Statutes of 2003, became effective with the governor's signature in August.

Other insurance measures include:

Earthquake Policies

AB 1048 (Calderon) – Addresses the claims-paying capacity of the California Earthquake Authority by modifying its accounting methods to require the use of standard industry accounting and policyholder-protection practices. Signed – Chapter 144/Statutes of 2003.

Property and Liability Insurance

AB 996 (Wiggins) – Protects reproductive health care facilities, including those that provide abortions, from discrimination by insurers for being targets of hate crimes or anti-reproductive-rights crimes. Specifically, the bill prohibits an insurer from canceling or refusing to renew a facilities insurance, or imposing an excessive or unfairly discriminatory premium, solely because the facility has filed a claim as a result of a hate crime or anti-reproductive-rights crime in the preceding five years. It also requires an insurer to report a cancellation or non-renewal to the state insurance commissioner if the facility has submitted a claim that is the result of an anti-reproductive-rights crime. Signed – Chapter 647/ Statutes of 2003.

AB 1727 (Committee on Insurance) – Increases the notice-of-cancellation period from five to 20 days for homeowner and residential property/liability policyholders, except when insurers are canceling coverage for reasons of non-payment of premium or fraud. Signed – Chapter 148/Statutes of 2003.

Labor and Employment

Workers' Compensation

The escalating costs of workers' compensation was one of the major issues facing the Legislature in 2003. A number of bills were introduced early in the session to address this crisis. All bills were sent to a conference committee which deliberated the many issues and passed a series of bills aimed at cutting the costs and increasing the financial stability of the system. Two major bills, SB 228 (Alarcón) and AB 227 (Vargas), addressed some of the major cost drivers to the program.

SB 228, Chapter 639/Statutes of 2003, reforms the workers' compensation program by limiting the number of chiropractic and physical therapy visits, implementing utilization guidelines for services, creating a new outpatient facility fee schedule, and repealing the treater's presumption of correctness for medical treatment, except when the employee has "pre-designated" his or her physician. AB 227, Chapter 635/Statutes of 2003, repeals vocation rehabilitation benefits and implements a new supplemental job displacement benefit for injuries, provides for 100 percent user funding for the Division of Workers' Compensation, increases the maximum fine for fraud from $50,000 to $150,000, and authorizes the California Infrastructure and Economic Development Bank to issue up to $1.5 billion worth of bonds to generate funds to ensure the continued solvency of the California Insurance Guarantee Association.

A number of other key measures were also crafted in final form by the conference committee. AB 1528 (Cohn), Chapter 672/Statutes of 2003, authorizes the governor to convene the California Health Care Quality Improvement and Cost Containment Commission and requires the commission to examine and address strategies for promoting high quality care and containing health care costs. AB 1262 (Mathews), Chapter 637/Statutes of 2003, requires insurers to certify that their claims adjusters meet minimum standards and requires the state Department of Insurance to adopt regulations setting forth these standards. AB 968 (Correa), Chapter 831/Statutes of 2003, specifies that any injury suffered by an employee as a result of a vaccination administered to prevent infection by a biochemical substance or blood-borne infectious disease arises out of and in the course of employment for workers' compensation purposes. AB 149 (Cohn), Chapter 831/Statutes of 2003, extends the statute of limitations for claims for workers' compensation death benefits in the case of firefighters who death results from asbestosis.

Privacy, Public Information, and Identity Theft

Please see "Internet Privacy and Spam," in the section on Information Technology and High-Technology Crime

Consumer Privacy

The Legislature passed three major Senate bills this year to give individual California consumers the most complete control in the United States over financial institutions and other businesses sharing consumers' personal information.

The consumers' protected information includes names, signatures, social security numbers, physical descriptions, addresses, telephone numbers, passport numbers, driver's license or state identification card numbers, insurance policy numbers, educational and employment histories, bank account numbers, credit and debit card numbers, and customer status information.

SB 1 (Speier and Burton) – Prohibits financial institutions from sharing or selling personally identifiable nonpublic information without obtaining a consumer's consent. Requires that a consumer actively consent ("opt in") for sharing with an unaffiliated third party, and requires that consumers be given the opportunity to "opt out" of sharing with the financial institution's affiliates. Takes effect July 1, 2004. Signed – Chapter 241/Statutes of 2003.

SB 27 (Figueroa) – Requires a business that discloses a consumer's personal information to a third party for direct-marketing purposes to provide to the customer, upon request, a written description of recipients of that information and a description of categories of the information disclosed (e.g., age and gender of customer's children, height or weight of customers, name and address, income). Financial institutions that comply with SB 1, above, are exempt. Takes effect in 2005. Signed – Chapter 505/Statutes of 2003

SB 590 (Speier) – Would have prohibited merchants from requesting or requiring a consumer's personal information when it is unnecessary for the transaction. Would have banned the sharing of personal information with a third party, including an affiliated business, except when it is necessary to effect a transaction, is otherwise authorized by the consumer, or if the consumer is given the clear and conspicuous opportunity to refuse to allow that sharing ("opt-out"). Vetoed.

AB 213 (Leslie) – Restricts the use of data from recording devices that manufacturers install in vehicles. Makes the data the sole property of the vehicle owner, and says that no other person may retrieve the data, with certain exceptions. Identity Theft

The Federal Trade Commission recently reported that 12.7 percent of surveyed Americans reported that they were victims of identity theft in the previous five years. The FTC estimated the annual costs to victims as $5 billion and the total cost to the economy as approaching $50 billion.

By some accounts, identity theft remains the fastest-growing crime in the United States.

California has led the nation for several years in combating identity theft. The Legislature continued the battle this year with the three Senate bills discussed under Consumer Privacy above, and with the following bills to prevent such crimes, arrest and convict the criminals who perpetrate them, and assist victims.

SB 25 (Bowen) – Requires any person who extends credit on the basis of a credit report to take reasonable steps to verify the consumer's identity if the consumer has placed a security alert in the credit report. If a consumer has placed a statement requesting that identity be verified by calling a specified phone number, the consumer must be contacted at that number. The bill also prohibits making public an individual's Social Security number or using Social Security numbers as passwords or on or in an identification card – including in a bar code, chip, magnetic strip, or other technology. Signed – Chapter 907/ Statutes of 2003.

SB 544 (Chesbro) – Requires that a county recorder, before recording any U.S. military veteran's discharge document, must obtain a signed statement from the veteran acknowledging that it will become part of the official record of the county, and subject to inspection, as provided by existing law. Provides, contingent on the enactment of AB 1179 (Parra), that no copy of a recorded military discharge document may be issued except as provided by that bill. Signed – Chapter 301/Statutes of 2003.

SB 602 (Figueroa) – Enacts the Identity Theft Prevention and Assistance Act. Specifically, the bill:

1. Authorizes a civil penalty of up to $2,500 against a credit-reporting agency that recklessly or intentionally fails to place a security alert on a credit file when the consumer requests it. Also requires notice of a security-alert expiration.
2. Caps the fee for a credit freeze at $10 where the consumer is not an identity-theft victim. A freeze is free when the consumer is a victim.
3. Restrict businesses' use of encoded data on driver's licenses. Prohibits unauthorized retention of information from a license. Makes violation a misdemeanor.
4. Requires businesses that provide credit, installment, or telephone accounts to send specified change-of-address request notifications.
5. Creates a right of action for damages against businesses that fail to provide a consumer with required information when an identity thief opens an unauthorized account in the consumer's name.
6. Specifies that the law-enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the victim's place of residence is primarily responsible for victim-initiated investigation of identity theft.

Signed – Chapter 533/Statutes of 2003.

SB 660 (Speier) – Requires that a Social Security number that is part of a court file in a dissolution matter shall be placed in the confidential portion of the file, but the remainder of the file shall be open to public inspection. Signed – Chapter 154/Statutes of 2003.

SB 684 (Alpert) – Requires credit issuers to provide information to consumers who suspect they are identity-theft victims about the possibly fraudulent issuance of new credit cards on existing accounts or other additions or renewals of credit – not just about new credit applications, as in the past. Signed – Chapter 534/Statutes of 2003

SB 752 (Alpert) – Creates a procedure where a person can contest a notice to appear in criminal court on the basis that he or she is not the person who was issued the notice. AB 1294 (Wiggins) – Requires a debt collector to stop trying to collect a consumer debt if a consumer provides the collector with a written statement that certifies that the consumer is a victim of identity theft. Makes it a misdemeanor crime to lie on the statement. Provides that the collector may recommence debt collection activity only upon making a good-faith determination that the information does not rule out the consumer's responsibility for the debt. Requires that the collector notify the consumer of that determination in writing before recommencing collection activity. Signed – Chapter 287/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1610 (Pavley) – Requires the user of a consumer credit report to take reasonable steps to verify the accuracy of a name and Social Security number supplied in a credit application if that name or Social Security number does not match the information contained in the credit report. Signed – Chapter 41/Statutes of 2003.

The Legislature ratified memorandums of understanding (MOUs) negotiated between the state and a number of state bargaining units in an attempt to achieve employee compensation cost savings. SB 439 (Senate Public Employment and Retirement Committee), Chapter 617/Statutes of 2003, approved amendments to existing MOUs entered into with Bargaining Units 5 and 8. This provides that employees will forego a 5 percent pay increase on 2003-04 in exchange for a personal leave day each month. The employer will increase the contribution towards health care coverage to 80 percent of the premium for the employee and 80 percent for dependent coverage.

AB 375 (Bermudez), Chapter 615/Statutes of 2003, ratifies the MOU negotiated between the state and Units 1, 4, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 20 and 21, which also specifies that for the 2003-04 fiscal year employees shall have their pay reduced by 5 percent in exchange for eight hours of leave per month. Public Safety

Among other advances, permanent changes occurred in two general areas of public safety as a result of 2003-04 legislation: Reshaping of the bureaucracies and reforming of key state prison policies.

The Office of Criminal Justice Planning (OCJP), an arm of the governor's office, and the Youthful Offender Parole Board (YOPB) were abolished. OCJP functions are transferred to other agencies where efficiencies are anticipated. Duties of the YOPB are transferred to a new board more closely associated with the California Youth Authority and the young offenders incarcerated there.

Also this year, reforms were implemented to provide improved alternatives for adult parole violators, for the education of inmates and resulting time-off credits to reduce their sentences and for the treatment and provisional early release of inmates requiring drug addiction treatment. Each of those reforms are estimated to achieve cost reductions to the Department of Corrections through reduced recidivism and reduced time served in prison.

Another significant change occurred with respect to capital punishment. That and other principal legislation affecting public safety are summarized below. At the end of this section is a discussion of sexual assault and domestic violence legislation.

SB 3 (Burton) – Prohibits the state execution of defendants in capital cases if the defendant is found by a judge or jury to be mentally retarded as defined by existing state law. Signed – Chapter 700/Statutes of 2003.

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled last year in Atkins v. Virginia that capital punishment of retarded persons is unconstitutional. But the court left it to each state where a death penalty is authorized to define for itself the degree of mental retardation by which the ban would apply.

In response to Atkins, SB 3 places in law the requirements in California for creating a mental retardation defense in cases where the prosecution seeks the death penalty. The bill adopts the definition for mental retardation that is already present in the California Penal Code. Additionally, the bill sets up a procedure for a separate trial, to take place before the guilt-or-innocence trial in a capital case, to determine if mental retardation of the defendant has been established. If a judge or jury so rules, a death sentence is precluded and the maximum penalty that a court can impose upon conviction is life without possibility of parole.

SB 226 (Cedillo) – Adds those who are restrained by an elder abuse restraining order to the categories of persons prohibited from owning or possessing a firearm. Creates a notice to the restrained person that they cannot own or possess a firearm while the protective order is in force. Signed – Chapter 498/Statutes of 2003.

SB 255 (Ducheny) – Allows a person uncertain of his or her past criminal record to undergo the state background check required of persons buying a firearm. But under this procedure, the person withholds his application to make the purchase until the outcome of the background check is known. An individual can thus be forewarned against breaking the law that prohibits someone with a criminal record from applying to buy a gun. Signed – Chapter 298/Statutes of 2003.

SB 278 (Ducheny) – Requires the Department of Corrections to adopt policies and procedures for drug utilization that will optimize efficacy and cost efficiency. Requires the release on parole placement to a medical facility of prisoners with medical conditions who are determined by the department not to pose a threat to public safety. These provisions do not apply to condemned inmates. Vetoed.

SB 337 (Romero) – Makes the statute of limitation for immigration consultation fraud by unscrupulous immigration lawyers from the date of the fraud's discovery, not date of the crime. Signed – Chapter 152/Statutes of 2003.

SB 420 (Vasconcellos) – Requires the Department of Health Services to issue identification cards, if the recipient so desires, for patients who qualify under state law to receive physician-prescribed marijuana treatment for a physical ailment. Signed – Chapter 875/Statutes of 2003.

SB 489 (Scott) – Requires new models of semiautomatic handguns sold in California to come equipped with two additional safety devices to prevent accidental discharge. One is an indicator to the gun user that a round is in the firing chamber. The other is a mechanism to prevent the gun from firing when the magazine is removed. One or the other feature must be part of newly designed guns offered for sale after January 1, 2006. Both features must be incorporated on specified categories of firearms after January 1, 2007. Signed – Chapter 500/Statutes of 2003.

SB 549 (Vasconcellos) – Authorizes the Dept. of Corrections to contract with private facilities for the incarceration and care of geriatric inmates in need of skilled nursing facilities. Signed – Chapter 708/Statutes of 2003.

SB 459 (Burton) – Abolishes the Youthful Offender Parole Board and consolidates its functions under the Department of the Youth Authority in a Youth Authority Board. The change is intended to improve the connection between the CYA and the members of the reconstituted board in dealing with such issues as parole and length of confinement of CYA wards. The bill also requires the CYA to submit treatment plans to the courts and probation departments for the wards it houses, and requires lengths of confinement not to exceed confinement time for equivalent offenses in the adult system. Signed – Chapter 4/Statutes of 2003.

SB 618 (Scott) – Protects senior citizens from financial abuse in the insurance industry. Among other things, agents face sanctions including loss of license for inducing clients to name the agent or someone in league with the agent as beneficiaries, or for misrepresenting the terms of a policy. Signed – Chapter 546/Statutes of 2003.

SB 620 (Scott) – Also protects seniors from insurance fraud by banning deceptive advertising as well as the selling of annuities of "Medi-Cal planning" to clients who don't qualify for Medi-Cal, or fee-splitting between agents and attorneys. Other features include: Protection of seniors' investments in variable annuities from market losses during the 30 day "free look" period; agents to provide prospective clients time for a family or other adviser to be present during a home visit by giving a written notice 24 hours in advance of any such visit. SB 762 (Brulte) – Clarifies that Proposition 36 is only available to persons who possess drugs for personal use. A number of changes reflected in the 2003-04 state budget also had significant impact on the criminal justice system, particularly in reforms applied to the California Department of Corrections (CDC). Among them:

- More opportunities for prison inmates to enroll in vocational and academic instruction classes, and thereby earn further time-off credits to reduce their prison term. Such instruction is added to CDC inmate reception centers at a cost of $10 million. Another $10.9 million is restored to retain education and art program staff previously slated for reduction. As a result of the new programs and reduced prison terms, savings of $22.3 million are estimated for the current budget year and $51.5 million in the next year.
- Non-violent inmates requiring drug treatment are added to those qualifying to spend the final 120 days of their prison term on the outside, in a supervised program. Net savings to the state from improved treatment and reduced time in prison is estimated at $20.1 million currently and $44.4 million next budget year.
- Alternative sanctions for minor parole violations are added to parole programs, reducing the number of such violations that result in returning parolees to prison at substantial costs. With the new sanctions in place, a net cost of $12.8 million is estimated in the current year, but a net savings of $100.8 million in the next budget year.

Sexual Assault

AB 898 (Chu) – Enacts the Sexual Assault Victims DNA Bill of Rights. Some of these provisions are:

- Law enforcement will be required to inform victims of sexual assault if they do not intend to analyze DNA evidence within the statute of limitations.

- Law enforcement will be authorized but not required to inform interested sexual assault victims of the status of DNA evidence testing. Signed – Chapter 537/Statutes of 2003.

Domestic Violence

Please see the Family Law section, for additional domestic-violence bills related to child custody.

Addressing the tragedy of domestic violence in the Legislature and in our communities is an on-going challenge. The California Department of Justice says 196,880 incidents of domestic violence were reported to local law enforcement in California in 2000. Arrests on domestic violence charges rose by 17 percent, to more than 51,000, in California between 1990 and 2000. Based on the 1998 California Women's Health Survey, the California Department of Health Services estimates that 6 percent of California adult women, or more than 620,000, were physically abused in the year before the survey. Studies consistently find that women are much more likely than men to be hurt by an intimate.

Criminal Justice

In 2001 Senator Karnette successfully authored SB 799. This measure allowed women who were convicted of homicide prior to the enactment of the law allowing evidence at trial of battering and its effects to bring a writ of habeas corpus when there is a reasonable probability that the result of the case would have been different had evidence of the effects of domestic violence been admissible in the original trial. The provisions of SB 799 were set to expire on January 1, 2005. Because these incarcerated women needed more time to prepare writs of habeas corpus, SB 784 (Karnette), Chapter 136/Statutes of 2003, extends the expiration date to January 1, 2010.

AB 134 (Cohn) – Adds battery to the list of priors that subject a person who has never been convicted of felony domestic violence to increased penalties. Signed – Chapter 262/Statutes of 2003.

AB 383 (Cohn) – Current law generally allows a person's attorney to appear in court for the defendant who is accused of a misdemeanor. However, a previous bill by Assemblymember Cohn requires a defendant accused of a misdemeanor domestic violence offense or a misdemeanor violation of a domestic violence protective order, as specified, to personally appear in court for arraignment and sentencing. This bill extends existing law to require a defendant charged with a misdemeanor domestic violence offense or a violation of a domestic violence protective order to additionally be present at any time during the proceedings when ordered by the court for the purpose of being informed of the conditions of a domestic violence protective order. Signed – Chapter 29/Statutes of 2003.

Firearms

Existing California and federal laws ban a person convicted of a felony from firearm ownership, possession or purchase for life. Misdemeanor convictions related to domestic violence result in a ten-year prohibition. Existing law also prohibits an individual subject to a domestic violence restraining order from owning, possessing or purchasing a firearm for the duration of the protective order. Law enforcement is required to remove any firearms at the scene of a domestic violence incident, or any firearms found after a consensual search.

AB 580 (Nunez) – Provides that a person who, following successful completion of probation, has obtained dismissal of the underlying charges, cannot legally possess a firearm, whether handgun or long gun, if the underlying offense includes or results in a firearm possession ban. Signed – Chapter 49/Statutes of 2003.

AB 1290 (Jackson) – Extends firearms restrictions that attach to domestic violence protective orders to elder abuse protective orders and stalking protective orders. Signed – Chapter 495/Statutes of 2003.

Funding

AB 352 (Goldberg) – Increases from $200 to $400 the minimum, mandatory payment imposed on persons granted probation for a domestic violence crime and changes the formula for disbursement of these funds. The formula will change from one-third to two-thirds the allocation of these payments received by counties for county domestic violence program special funds, and decreases from two-thirds to one-third the allocation of these payments received by the state for two domestic violence-related funds. These provisions will be in effect until 2007. Signed – Chapter 431/Statutes of 2003.

Housing

SB 345 (Kuehl) – Contains a number of reforms relating to landlord-tenant law. One provision requires a public housing authority, in exercising its discretion to evict a tenant for the drug or criminal activity of the tenant, a family member or a guest to terminate the tenancy only if the tenant engaged in the criminal activity or the tenant (a) should have reasonably foreseen the activity, (b) failed to take affirmative steps to prevent it, and (c) was not the victim of the criminal activity, if the criminal activity was either domestic violence or a hate crime. Signed – Chapter 787/Statutes of 2003.

Restraining Orders

SB 399 (Kuehl) – Expands the definition of protective order to include orders issued under anti-stalking laws in the Uniform Interstate Enforcement of Domestic Violence Protection Orders Act thereby allowing the enforcement of such out-of-state restraining orders in California. Signed – Chapter 134/ Statutes of 2003.

AB 1488 (Bates) – Requires a defendant, who knowingly violates a restraining order and harms, threatens to harm, or stalks the victim, to appear in court for a preliminary hearing before being released on his or her own recognizance or on bail. Signed – Chapter 30/Statutes of 2003.

Stalking

SB 378 (Morrow) – Allows victims of stalking to obtain a new set of license plates from the Department of Motor Vehicles. Existing law already allows victims of domestic violence access to new plates. Signed – Chapter 153/ Statutes of 2003.

State Administration of Grants to Shelters

AB 1757 (Oropeza) – As previously noted, this bill makes various statutory changes related to abolishing the Office of Criminal Justice Planning. When signing AB 1757, Governor Davis submitted a letter to the Legislature saying: "This bill also will require a shift in oversight responsibility for the former OCJP domestic violence program. I intend to submit a plan for administering this important program in consultation with the Legislature and persons working against domestic violence." Signed – Chapter 229/Statutes of 2003.

Revenue and Taxation

U.S. Department of Commerce figures show on-line sales grew by 28 percent in the three months leading up to Christmas 2002, when compared to the same three-month period a year before.

Out-of-state retailers with no business nexus (generally, a physical presence) in California are not required to collect state sales taxes. Instead, Californians who buy from out-of-state retailers are required to pay an equivalent use tax but this requirement is difficult to enforce. California "brick-and-mortar" retailers complain that the current system puts them at a competitive disadvantage to Internet and out-of-state retailers.

SB 157 by Senator Debra Bowen, Chapter 702/Statutes of 2003, creates a board to participate with some 30 other states in supporting a national Streamlined Sales and Use Tax Agreement with the long-term goal of obtaining congressional approval to permit states to require Internet and out-of-state retailers to collect a streamlined sales tax on their behalf.

Meanwhile, SB 1009 by Senator Dede Alpert, Chapter 718/Statutes of 2003, authorizes individuals to report and pay use taxes on their state income-tax forms for purchases they make from out-of-state retailers. The Alpert bill also prevents a state government agency from buying from a vendor or contractor that does not have a valid seller's permit or has not registered with Board of Equalization. This is intended to send the signal that the state does not wish to do business with entities that do not collect California sales and use taxes. The Board of Equalization estimates the bill could stop the loss of $13 million per year in state and local sales and use taxes – $8 million from corporate and franchise taxpayers and $5 million from individual taxpayers.

SB 103 (Alpert) – Clarifies that dividends received by a California corporate shareholder from a regulated investment company are generally not excludable from the income of that corporate shareholder. Declares that this clarification is operative for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2003. Signed – Chapter 655/Statutes of 2003.

Specifies that any duties and responsibilities imposed by this act shall be contingent upon funding for those purposes being derived from increases in tolls on state-owned toll bridges in the Bay Area, pursuant to the expenditure plan in SB 916 below. Signed – Chapter 714/Statutes of 2003.

SB 916 (Perata) – Requires that a special election be held in seven Bay Area counties to determine whether a Regional Traffic Relief Plan should take effect, which in turn would trigger a $1 increase in the vehicle tolls on Bay Area toll bridges. The additional revenues would be used for Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) expansion, expanded rail and bus networks, expanded ferry services, transit linkages, highway construction, the Transbay Terminal project, new bridges, transit operations, bicycle and pedestrian improvements, transit vehicles, and other transit and transportation services and projects in the Bay Area. This bill distinguishes the Bay Area Toll Authority (BATA) as a separate entity from the Metropolitan Transportation Commission (MTC), articulates the authority's responsibilities and adds other provisions intended to reduce congestion in the greater Bay Area and generally improve travel within bridge corridors. Signed – Chapter 715/Statutes of 2003.
